Jim:

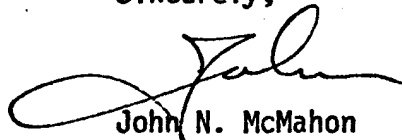

Many thanks for hosting me on board the Kennedy for those many fine meals. From my standpoint it was an extremely rewarding experience, both professionally as well as personally.

I dug back through some old records and found out that we used the Ranger for the U-2 flights. I'm sure that is a history few people will remember let alone know about.

I was quite impressed with the overall morale and spirit of the people that I talked to during my visit. It's certainly reassuring.

You have my best wishes for continued success and good luck.

Sincerely,

John N. McMahon
